Hi Donna:

Our beautiful dining table and chairs were delivered today and I thank you for the quick delivery.

After the delivery men left, I was dusting the chairs a bit more and discovered a spot that looks as if it was missed when they stained the chair. I immediately called and since you were not there, they connected me to Mickey von Hemert. He said for us to wait until after Easter and then he would either send a truck out to pick it up or we could drop it off at the store.

I just wanted to alert you of the issue with the chair and I will be calling after Easter to have the chair picked up and the stain done on the slat.

Again, thank you for the quick delivery. I mentioned to Mickey and I'll mention to you how pleasant and nice (and STRONG) your delivery men are.

Have a nice Easter,

Cathy Schwaim
